

Vertebrates

animals with backbones

Vertebrates

Mammals

suckle young

(feed babies milk)

skin covered by hair/fur

breathe air

give birth to fully formed young

Vertebrates

Fish

scales

fins and tails

breathe underwater using gills

Vertebrates

Reptiles

dry skin and scales

lay eggs

breathe air

Vertebrates

Birds

feathers
two wings
claws
lay eggs

Vertebrates

Amphibians

young live in water but the adults live on land smooth wet or slimy skin
lay eggs

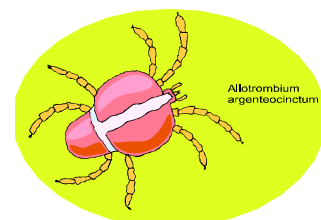

Invertebrates

animals without a backbone

Invertebrates

Arthropod

limbs with joints exoskeleton (a hard, external skeleton) includes insects, arachnids, and crustaceans

Other Invertebrates

Mollusks- clams, oysters, squid

Annelids- earthworms, leeches

Echinoderms- sea stars, sea urchins

