

The Story About Ping Sequencing Cards

The Story about Ping - Marjorie Flack

Sequencing Cards - ©2004 E.R. Crandall

All pictures, questions and ideas I came up with. You may have permission to use for personal use. If any other use, just ask me first. Thanks, Ellen

Directions:

Print out cards, cut out and color (have your child(ren) do this step)

Laminate them (opt.)

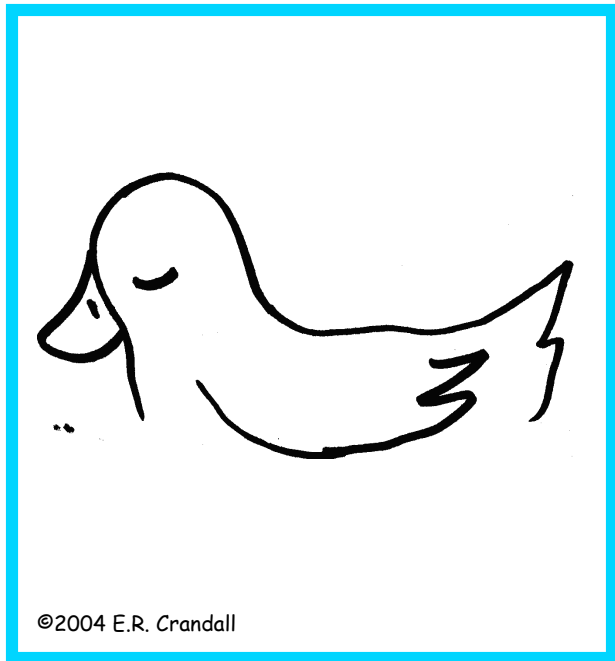

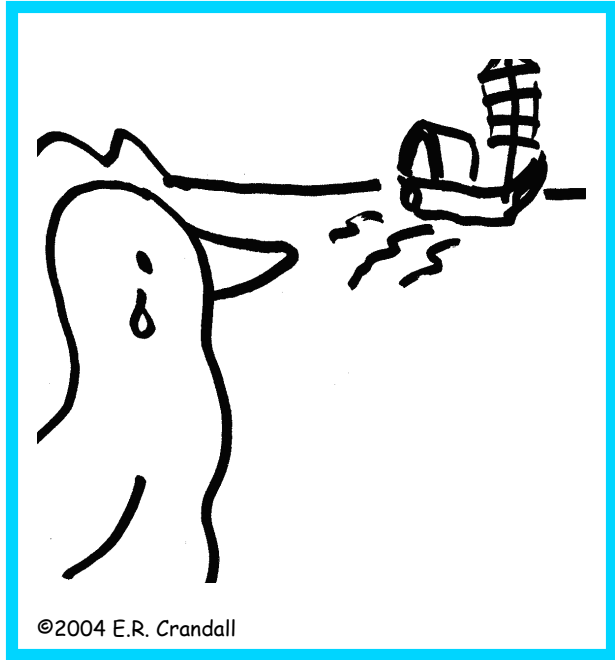

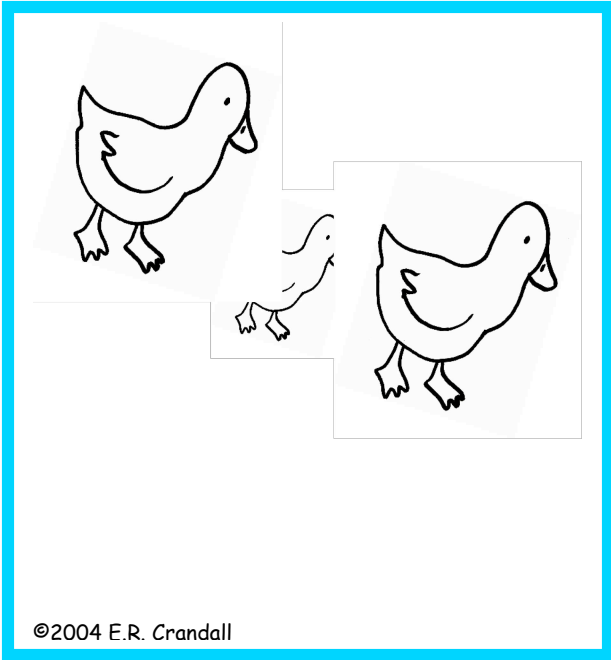

Have your child(ren) put them into the correct chronological order.

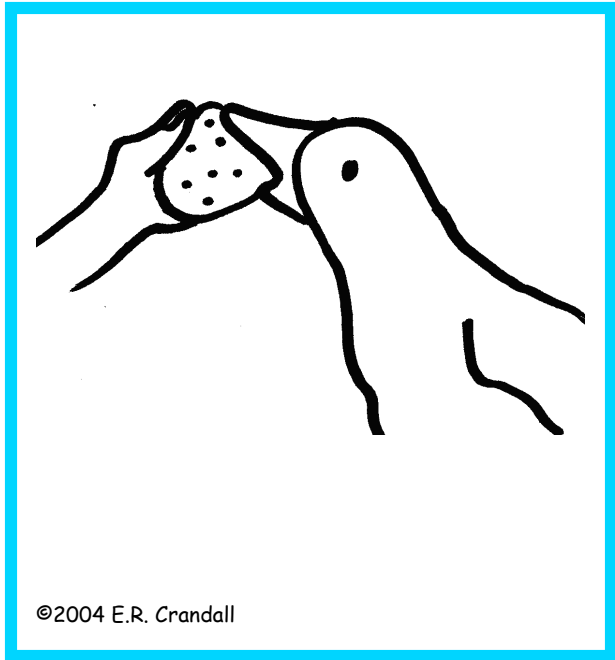

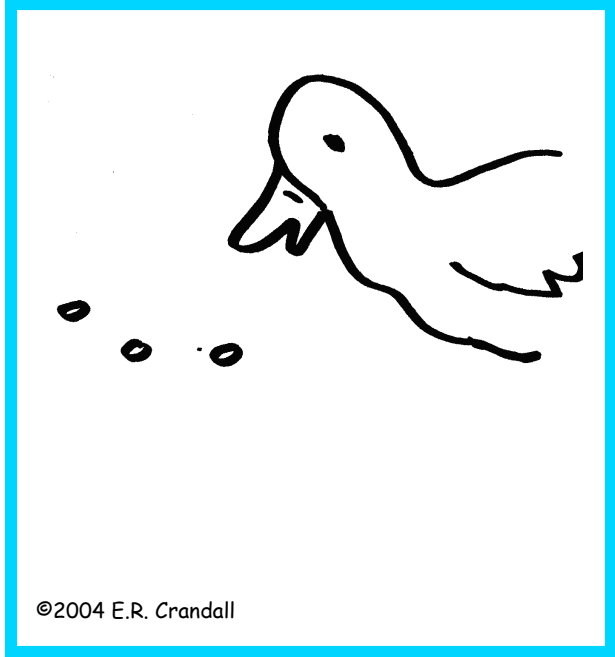

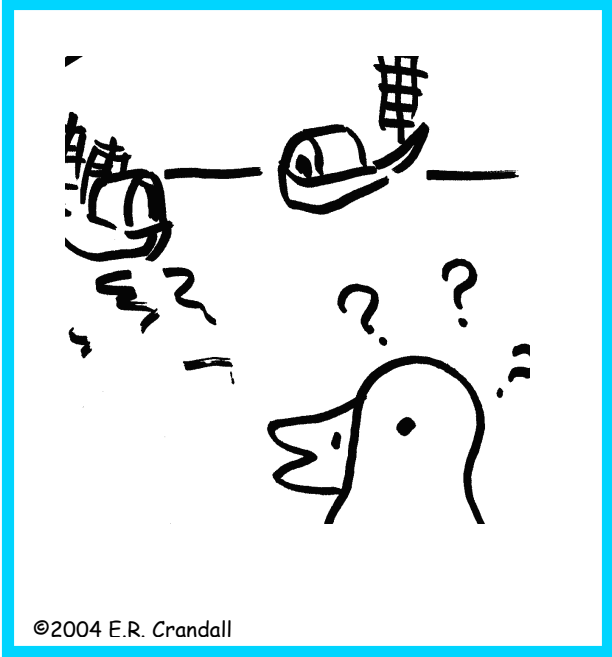

Variations:

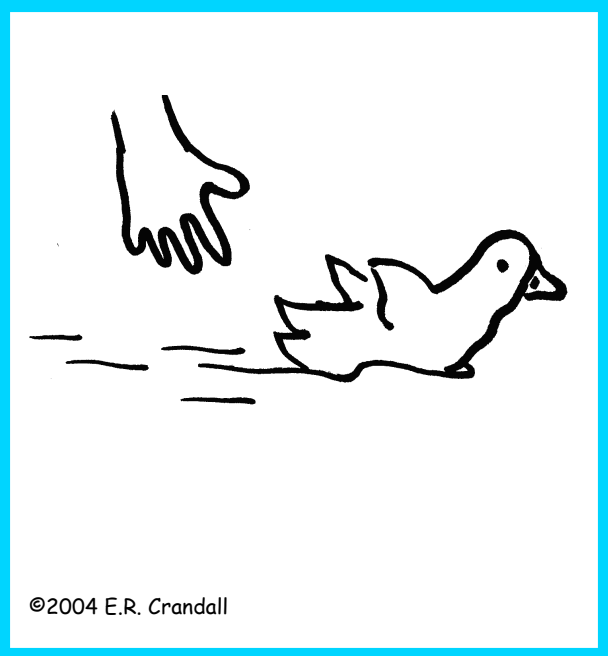

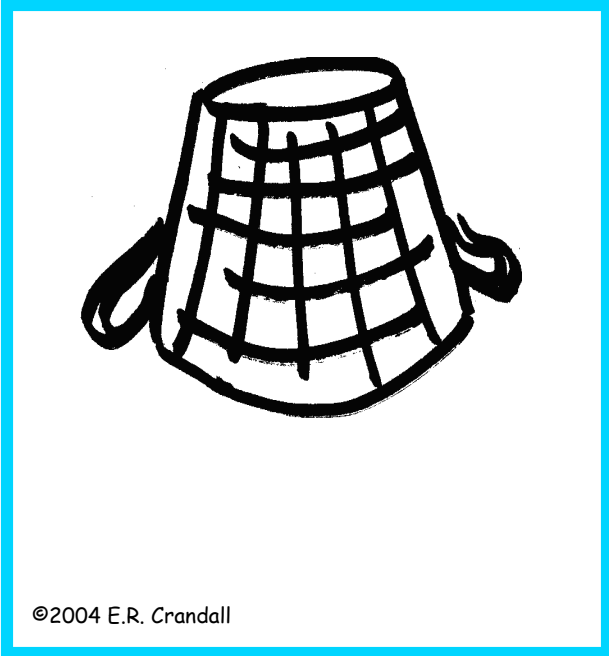

1. Have them play a matching game or go fish by printing out 2 sets of picture cards. (During go fish, your child would have to ask for the picture of what Ping is doing - good way of relaying events in story, use of complete sentences, creative thinking.)
2. Have them play a matching game with the word cards and the picture cards.
3. Make a little mini-book.
4. Use one card to talk about a particular event, idea, etc.
5. Use the blank cards to add a picture and/or words of your choosing.

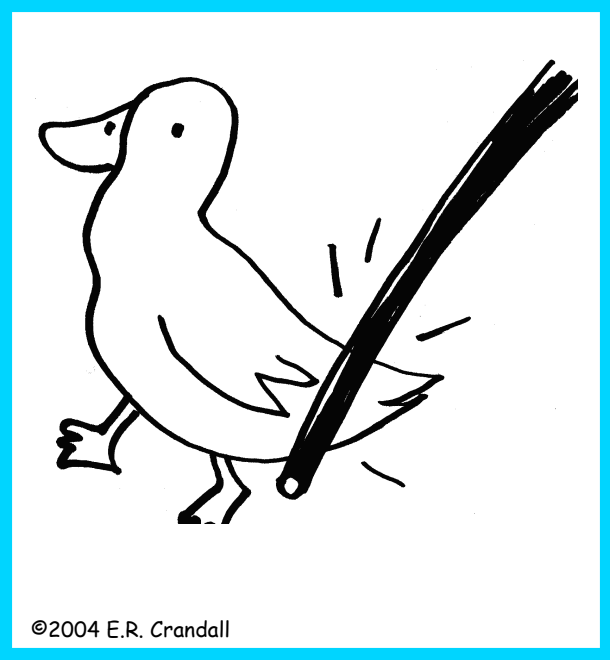

Story of Ping Sequence Cards (answers in order)

1. Ping and his family march down the little bridge.
2. Ping looks for fish.
3. Ping watches the wise-eyed boat sail away down the Yangtze River.
4. Ping sleeps.
5. Ping searches for the wise-eyed boat.
6. Ping meets ringed black birds.
7. Ping follows little floating crumbs.
8. Ping snatches at a rice cake.
9. A little boy catches Ping!
10. Ping is under a basket.
11. The little boy frees Ping.
12. Ping sees his wise-eyed boat.
13. Ping gets spanked.
14. Ping is happy to be home with his family.

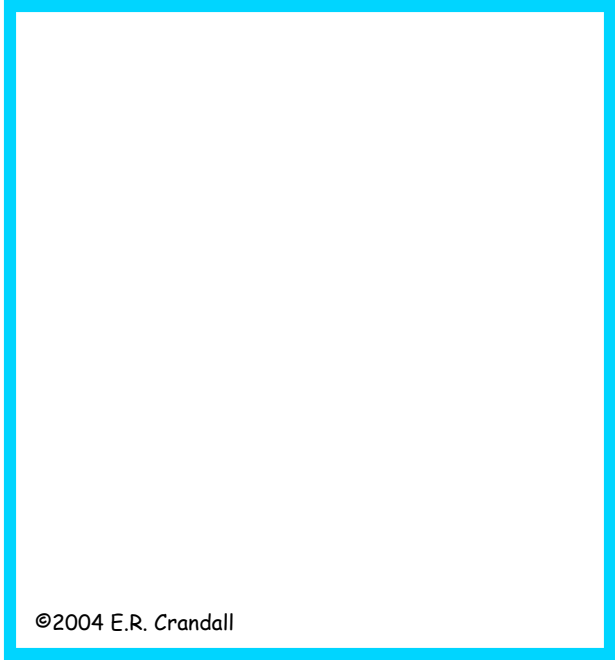

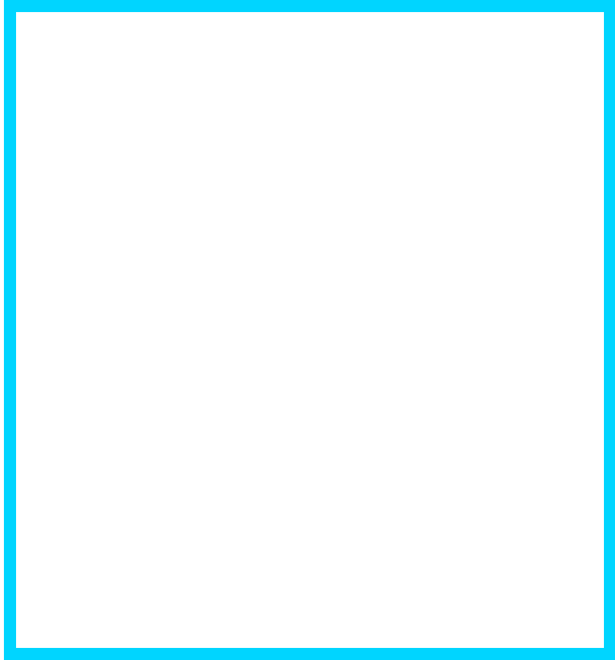

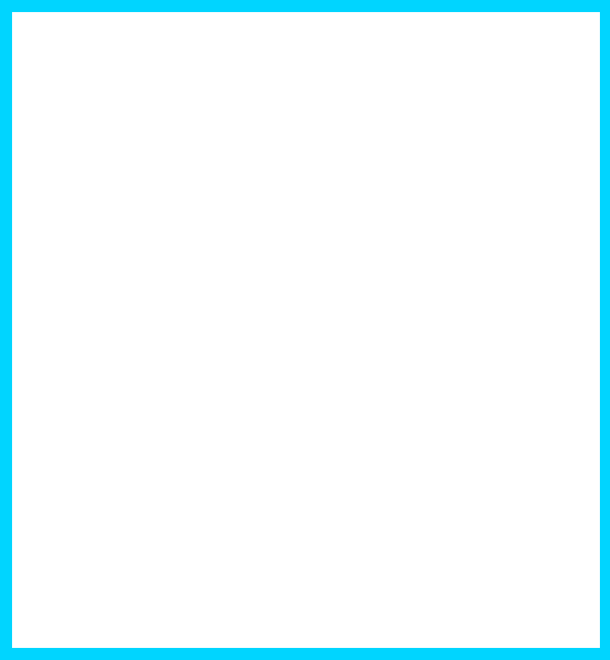

©2004 E.R. Crandall

©2004 E.R. Crandall

Ping and his family march down the little bridge.

Ping looks for fish.

Ping watches the wise-eyed boat sail down the Yangtze River.

Ping sleeps.

Ping searches for the wise-eyed boat.

Ping meets ringed black birds.

Ping follows little floating crumbs.

Ping snatches at a rice cake.

A little boy catches Ping!

Ping is under a basket.

The little boy frees Ping.

Ping sees his wide-eyed boat.

Ping gets spanked.

Ping is happy to be home
with his family.