

Scope and Sequence for K-3 Social Studies

Human Relationships:

- Role in Family, school, neighborhood, community including citizenship and social responsibility
- Neighborhood and Community services and helpers
- Interdependence of people
- Social skills including manners, etiquette, and awareness of others
- Appreciation of different cultures, races, religions
- Consumers and producers
- Basic human needs and their sources ie: food, clothing, and shelter
- Family and family history
- Safety rules and symbols

Geography:

- Basic geography terms and map skills
- Making and reading a simple neighborhood map
- Location and diagram of home
- Local geography and topography
- U. S. geography and regions
- The continents
- Flat maps and globes: oceans, continents

Cultures:

- Holidays, traditions, and customs, including patriotic holidays
- Understanding and appreciating different cultures
- Farm and zoo
- Communities in other lands: past and present

Occupations:

- Occupations

History:

- History and development of local community
- Our American Heritage
- Native Americans
- Explorers and pioneers
- History and development of transportation
- History and development of communication