

Cut shape out as one piece. Fold matchbook style. Let your student research about cardinals and include information about the cardinal's song inside the book.

Here is some information for a younger student:

Unlike many songbirds, both male and female cardinals can sing. They sing a long whistling song.