

TOP OF BOOK

Cut book on previous page out as one piece. Fold each triangle under. You should have four flaps. Let your student paste one picture under each flap while you emphasize the sound at the beginning of the word (walrus, water, watermelon, window). Can you student remember the name of the animal from the story that starts with a W? (Whale!) What other things can you find around the house that begin with W?