

Cut out the apples attach them to the cover using a fastener. Have your child count by two's to find out how many seeds are in each apple. A blank apple is provided for you to customize as you see fit for your child or it may be used to teach the concept of "0".

