

Cut book out as one piece. Fold in half. On the inside, let your student draw a picture displaying the character trait you are studying. As an alternative, your student could also cut/paste pictures from magazines (or clip-art) to make a collage of the character trait you are studying.