

Print on cardstock. Have your student color or paint the flower parts as desired. Cut out and let your student paste them to the next page. You may want to have student paste petals around the circle on the page provided before gluing down the flower's center.

