

Cut book out as one piece. Fold flaps in. Fold bottom up. Fold top (cover) down.

When the book is completely opened, your student should have five sections to write on. Write one food group on each section along with some foods found in that group.