

Punctuating Items in a Series

Directions: Copy the following sentences on a separate sheet of paper and add commas where needed.

She filled the jars put on the lids and took them to the cellar.

She cleared the kitchen made supper and called Alvah.

They dismantled the bed in their bedroom carried it out the door and reassembled it in the glass car.

Next they brought a table two chairs two forks two spoons two knives two plates two cups a skillet a kettle and a stove.

They loaded beans pickles maple creams popcorn dried cod and apples.

They brought jars of summer from the cellar—jams jellies vegetables and fruits.

Up the ramp came the cows—Betty Blossom Dear Rose Fleur Ruth Dora Belle and Sweet. Then the sheep—Dahlia Daisy Maud Juno Jacqueline and Esther.

Then he covered half the floor with flats for seedlings and planted a start on summer—tomatoes lettuce and squash.