

Luke 16:10 - "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much."

Write about a time when you were honest, even if it was hard. What happened? Did you learn anything from this experience?

Write about a time when you were dishonest. Where there any consequences? Did you learn anything from this experience?

Cut book out as one page. Valley fold top and bottom on dotted lines, and then fold in half. Cut out graphic and glue to cover.

Note: Cut off questions or copywork if you don't want to do both.
