

This is a pop-up book. First, print book out of cardstock. Mountain fold on dotted line. Snip the two 1" solid lines. Fold that flap down towards you on dotted line. Now, valley fold the book in half, on the dotted line, popping the box to the inside of the book. Cut out picture of judge. On the box marked "glue" glue the picture of the judge, sitting level with the paper. Make sure he lies flat when closing the book.

Someone who has committed a crime	A prison, esp. one for the detention of persons awaiting trial or convicted of minor offenses	The judicial punishment given as a result of breaking the law.	An act that is forbidden by rule or law
A person the police think may have committed a crime	The study of criminal behavior	Information gathered from the scene of the crime and also from persons involved

Cut out the 7 mini books and mountain fold on dotted lines. Cut out definitions and glue inside appropriate mini books. Mini books will get glued inside of popup book, all around the judge. Three on the top and four on the bottom works well.
