

Reproduction

Males court the females. Males bellow to the females. They may also rub snouts, swim in circles, and blow bubbles.

They come together and mate under water.

The female builds a nest and lays eggs; she will guard the nest.

Cut shapes out. Write information on each piece. Stack together with cover on top and staple on left side.

www.homeschoolshare.com

When the eggs hatch, the female will lead her babies to the water or carry them there in her mouth.