

Cut on solid black lines. Stack book together (rest of the pages are on the next page). Your student will have four tabs to flip through (two at the top and two on the side). Let your student draw his plans for his carving from each of the following angles: front, top, side, and back.

www.homeschoolshare.com

In an effort to save paper, I'm including another small book on this page. Cut petal book out as one piece. Fold each petal in from right to left and tuck the last one under. See FIAR manual for ideas of what to record on petals.

FRONT

TOP

BACK

SIDE