

Cut book out following outside line. Fold matchbook style on grey lines, with question and picture on the front. Color the chick and egg and have your child answer the question inside the matchbook (either by dictation or on their own).