

Weigh your student. Choose a destination and let your student help you find out how much it would cost to mail your student to the destination. Record findings inside the minit book below.

Cut book out as one piece. Fold in half.

Additional images have been included (above) for your student to decorate his lapbook, if desired.

