

Cut out the pancake circle. Fold it in fourths with the pancake on the INSIDE . Choose any one of the folds to cut. Cut from the outside edge to the exact center of the circle. You should be able to fold your book into a wedge shape. Write a title on the cover (such as "Products made from Maple Syrup" ). As you unfold the book, the first two pages should be blank. Your student can write various products on those pages. As your student unfolds the pages, the pancake will be revealed.
