

	Ears pricked forward
	Ears pricked forward and huddled together
	Ears pinned back and pointed in two different directions
	Ears pinned back, front feet raised, nostrils flared, and tail swishing
	Lying down and limp
	High neck and high tail
	Nuzzles you or rests head on you
	Nicker
	Nay or whinny

Cut out book as one piece. Fold in half on vertical line. Cut dotted lines. Let student write the explanation for each type of body language under the flap. Cut out cover on next page as one piece. Fold in half. Paste the back of the flap book into the right side of the inside of the cover.

Body

Language

