

From California
to Michigan

www.homeschoolshare.com

Cut out the book on the previous page and fold in half. Cut out map of the United States. Let your student color/label California and Michigan. Have him draw a line connecting the two. Paste the map on the inside of the book. If desired, let your student research to find out how many miles it is between the two and let him write the distance somewhere in the book.