

Print on cardstock, if possible. Let your student color the octopus (before you do the next part).. Using an exacto knife, cut three lines of each square and fold the flap back (making a window). Glue the next page under this one and let your student write each answer in the appropriate space.

If you have a young student, you can still do this activity. Let him use a calculator to find the answer.

