

Cut out all the shapes (seven total). Let your student record information about as many different aspects of the panda's anatomy as you desire. When finished, stack together with cover ("Anatomy") on top and attach a brass fastener where indicated.

If you don't have a brass fastener, you can simply use a staple.

