

Jake said that the pirates outnumbered the Greyhound crew 2 to 1. That means that for every one sailor on the Greyhound, there were two pirates.

Example:
If there were eight sailors on the Greyhound, there would be 8×2 pirates, or 16 pirates.

Complete the chart using your $\times 2$ multiplication facts.

Sailors on the Greyhound	Pirates
3
6
2
8
5
11
12
4
7
10
9

