

Feeding Fact

Feeding Fact

The platypus is awake for 12 hours and spends this time swimming and searching for food.

The platypus can eat its body weight in food in one night!

Two matchbooks total. Cut each one out as one piece. Fold matchbook style. Cut out each title and paste onto the front. Cut out text box and paste inside OR have your child research a couple of “feeding facts” and write them below the flap.