

What are the parts of a friendly letter? Label the different parts.

A large rectangular box for labeling the parts of a friendly letter. It contains several horizontal lines for writing. On the right side, there are three lines at the top and two lines at the bottom, intended for labeling the parts of the letter.

Address the envelope and don't forget to draw a stamp on, too.

A large rectangular box for addressing an envelope and drawing a stamp. It contains three horizontal lines on the left side for the address and three horizontal lines on the right side for a stamp.

