

Endangered Facts Tab Book

Cut out the rectangle below as one piece. Fold in half along the center line. Cut along the dotted gray lines to make 3 tabs or flaps. Answer each question under its flap.

	Are all sea turtles endangered?
	Which one is the most endangered of the species?
	Why are sea turtles endangered? List some of the reasons.

in danger of dying out; there won't be anymore, ever	Kemp's ridley is the most endangered
---	---

All of the rectangles below can be used as answers to the third question. If you are cutting and pasting answers, instead of writing them out, you can cut out all of the rectangles below, stack them up and staple them on the left side, and glue the back of the bottom page down onto the book.

Man and animal have hunted sea turtles for food.	Man has hunted them to make turtle products to sell.
Beaches have been taken over by people and baby turtles can't always find the sea.	Sea turtles sometimes think trash on beaches and in the water is food and eat it.
Fishing nets, drift nets and long fishing lines can all trap and hurt sea turtles.	Propellers on boats can also hurt or kill curious sea turtles.