

Cut out on solid lines. Fold each corner on the dotted line so words are to outside. Fold in half on dotted line so that cover is on top. Have child write answers under each flap.

Answers:

Where does the light enter the camera? Through a hole called an aperture in front of the lens.

What three things are needed to take a picture? Camera, film, light

What is the picture on the processed film called? Negative

How did Willie show a large group of people his pictures? Projected slides on a sheet.

