

Cut out both pieces of the wheel. Also cut along the solids lines on the “every tooth has...” circle, so that there are two sections which you can see through. Lay the circles on top of each other with the “every tooth has...” circle on top. Poke a brad through the center of the circles so that the top circle spins around the bottom circle. Adhere the bottom circle to the lapbook.

every tooth has a job!