

Grip

the dog who was a thief

www.homeschoolshare.com

How Grip Stole Things

If the man would stop to pet Grip, he would keep dancing and wriggling. He would dance and smell for a leather wallet at the same time.	First, Tom Gerrard and Grip would hide in an alley near a busy London street.	Grip trotted out of the alley and did a happy dance.
When he figured out where the wallet was, he would bite, tug, and tear the pocket and wallet away leaving a hole in the man's clothes! Grip would run away.	They waited and waited until a rich man would walk by.	Tom would point at the man and snap his fingers.

Cut book on previous page out as one piece. Fold hotdog style. Cut each piece on this page out. Glue them in order in your hotdog book.

Cut book out as one piece. Fold flaps down. Write about the old master under the first flap and write about the new master under the second.