

Counting Star

Print the star on cardstock. Have your child color or paint it. Talk about how many points a star has—count the points. Have your child add a star in the center of each point. Have him/her touch the little stars as she counts the points. Use the star as a prop while singing “Twinkle Twinkle Little Star”. Make a large pocket on the back of the lapbook for storage of the star.