

Didn't you know water
would be the end of me?
Look out - here I go!

After being the Wicked Witch's slave for some time, Dorothy accidently melted the witch with a bucket of water. After cleaning up the mess, she and the Lion were free!

The Winkies were free now too. They helped rescue and fix the Scarecrow and Tin Woodman.

1. Cut out Melting witch card and text box. Fold card with picture on outside and glue text inside.
