

Second Stanza of "Crumbs"

'Twas only a pleasant "Good Morning"
To one whose life is drear,
But he understood its meaning,
And knew that I meant to cheer.

Third Stanza of "Crumbs"

'Twas only a crumb at noon-day,
In the coin I gave to a child;
But I gave for the sake of Jesus,
And he understood and smiled.

Fourth Stanza of "Crumbs"

'Twas only a crumb at evening,
When after a tiresome day
I gave up my seat in a streetcar
To a woman old and gray.

Fifth Stanza of "Crumbs"

'Twas only a crumb at nightfall
When instead of the concert hall,
I went to the house of mourning
To comfort and help them all.

Sixth Stanza of "Crumbs"

They're only crumbs, but without them
There could not be any bread,
And the bread shall be returned to us,
For so the dear Lord has said.
