Cut pockets out. Fold back flap up and wrap side flaps around the back and glue down.
Glue the back of your pocket into your lapbook.

Earthquakes: Fact or Fiction?

Have student write the answer on back of the card. Store questions in pocket.
The longest recorded earthquake lasted 4 minutes.

There are hundreds of earthquakes every year.

Some animals behave strangely before earthquakes.

A pyramid shaped building is not very sturdy in an earthquake.

Answers:
1) Fact
2) Fiction—there are thousands of earthquakes each year
3) Fact
4) Fiction
A moonquake occurs on the moon. It is important to duck and cover in an earthquake.

A repeater is a machine used to measure Earth's plate movements. The Richter scale measures the power of an earthquake.

Answers:
5) Fact
6) Fact
7) Fact
8) Fact