Color cards, if desired. Cut apart and store in pockets.

Ideas for the cards

1. Matching Game (match animal to its gift suggestion/animal to product)
2. Story Sequencing (Put cards in order of the story)
3. Put animal cards face down in a "pond" and let student choose one. When he turns it over, act out the animal.
4. Hide the cards from your student and play a memory game. Ask your student to recall the animals in the story. When he mentions one, let him "win" the card. You can do the same kind of game with the animal products.

My Birthday

Fold paper on dotted line and cut around circle shape (do not cut on fold). Use the inside to record the date your child was born (and to help him learn his birthday). You may even want to add a picture of the day he was born or a picture of him celebrating a birthday.

Walk Like the Animals

Trotted

Hopped

Skipped

Galloped

Cut on solid lines. Fold on dotted.

Let your student choose an animal and lift the flap. Act out the action together! Trot, gallop, skip, and hop around the room.
