Compassion (Mercy)

Definition

Investing whatever is necessary to heal the hurts of others.

–Character Training Institute

Quotes

“The friend (in) my adversity I shall always cherish most. I can better trust those who helped to relieve the gloom of my dark hours than those who are so ready to enjoy with me the sunshine of my prosperity.” Ulysses S. Grant

Angelica saves money in a jar to give to a missionary who visited her church.	Maggie laughs at some kids in the grocery store who have dirty clothes with rips and stains. She also announces, "They stink!"
Jonah's family goes to the Rescue Mission to help serve in the soup kitchen. Jonah loves giving homeless people food to eat. He smiles at them and tells them funny stories.	When Eric and his mom went shopping for Operation Shoe Box, Eric cried when his mom told him the items were for another child. Eric wanted to keep the toys, candy, and socks.
Jim and Sue went to the nursing home to visit the elderly people there who didn't have any family members. They made Christmas cards and baked cookies. They even sang some songs to the people they met.	When Mara saw a girl at church in a wheel chair, she turned away. Mara didn't want to talk to her.
Jacob can't wait to take cans of green beans, corn, and peas to the local food bank. He helped his mom buy some with his own money.	Caleb is playing tag with some other boys at the park. When one falls down, Caleb sees his bloody knee, but he doesn't stop to help him up. Caleb doesn't want to get tagged.

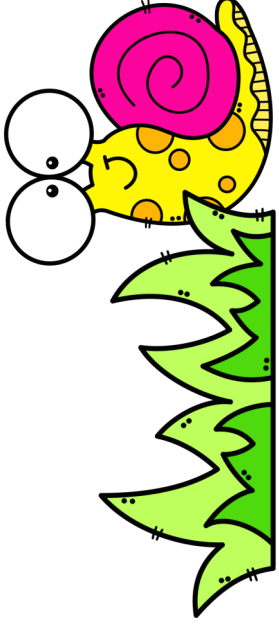

Cut the book out in one piece (along the solid outer lines). Cut the sentence strips out along the solid outer lines. Fold the short edge of the book up along the dotted line so that the text is to the outside. Attach the pocket to the main portion of the book (on the right and left sides). Fold the "right" portion of the book over along the dotted line so that the pocket is on the inside. Do the same with the "wrong" portion of the book. The center pocket allows your student a storage spot so he can play this "game" again.

Cut book out. Fold on lines (matchbook style).
