Lapbook

Short and Long Vowels Lapbook

Instructions: Cut out and glue the ten pockets into a lapbook. (Hint: You may want to place the cards in the pocket before folding the flaps back to ensure the pocket will be big enough for the cards.)

Print the cards on cardstock or heavy paper.

Option 1: Leave the cards unfolded as one large bookmark. Have child read the word and match the card to the correct pocket.

Option 2: Fold and tape/glue them shut

Have child look at the picture and match the sound they hear with the correct pocket.

Have child read the word (opposite side) and match the sound they hear with the correct pocket.

Use the cards only as flashcards. Child can read the word and check their answer with the picture.

Option 3: Cut apart cards—separating the words from their pictures.

Have child place cards into their correct pockets.

Play a matching game with some or all the cards. Matching the picture with the word scores you that set.

Have child draw a specified number of cards and make up a story using those words.

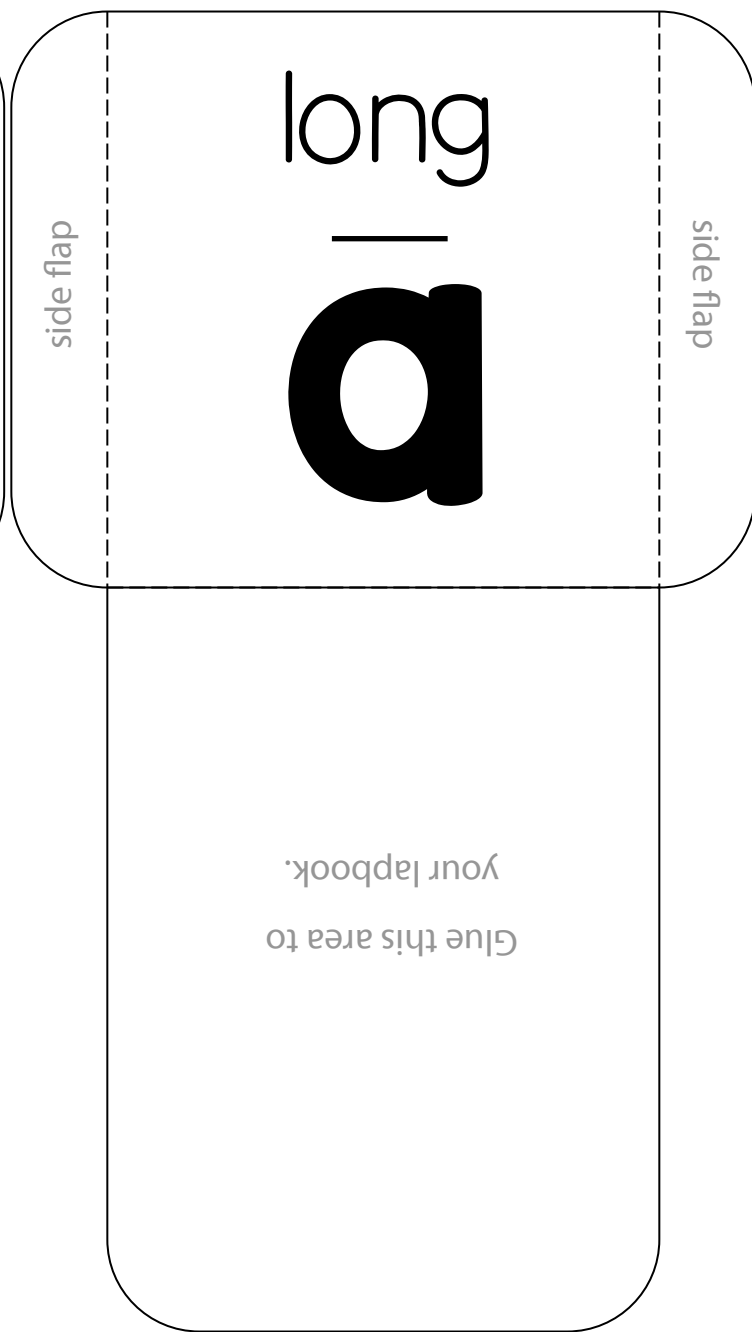

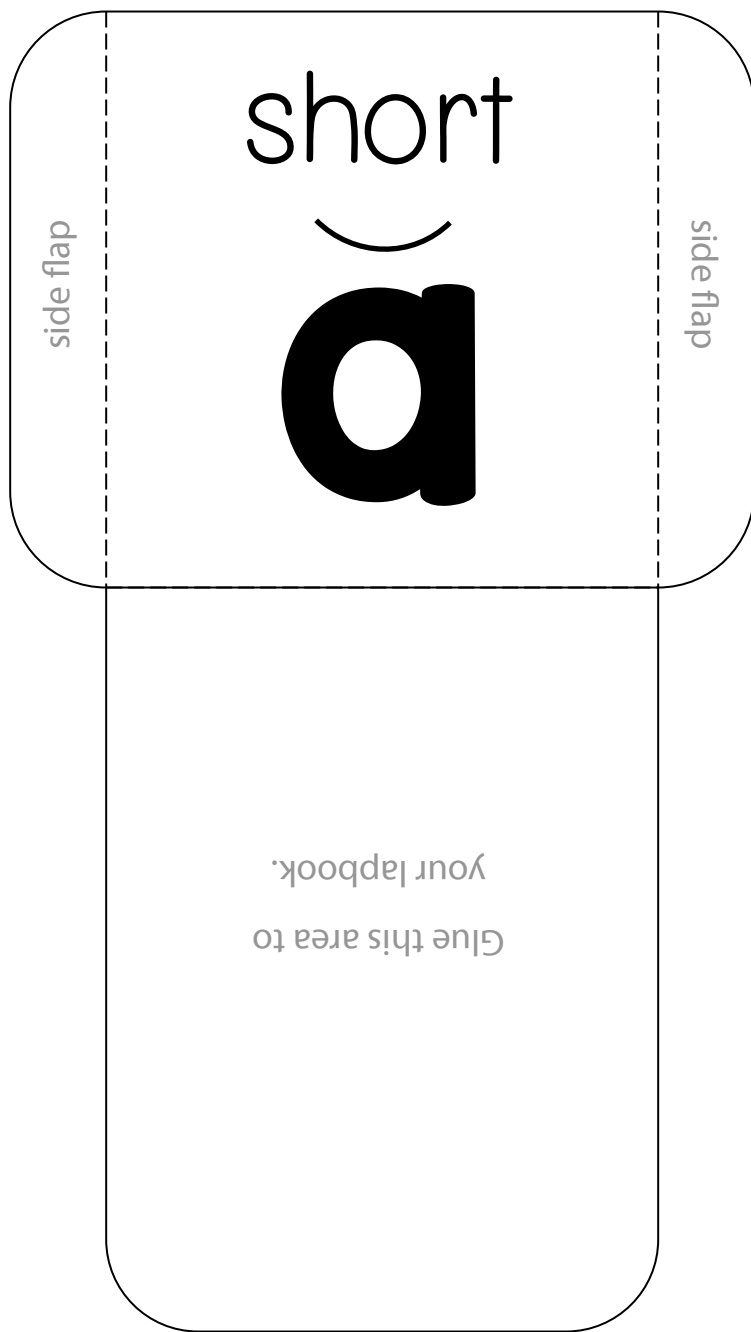

Two Vowel Rule Flap Books

You can also use the two vowel rule flap books to paste on the sides of your lapbook for extra reading practice.
