

CHEERFULNESS LAPBOOK

CHEERFULNESS LAPBOOK

1. Definition File Folder

Use this file folder to record a definition of the word.

2. Even If Fan

Write examples of things that can happen to you, but you can still be cheerful.

3. Cheerfulness Who's Who?

Read through and discuss the scenarios. Have your student sort them into pockets.

Note: While it is important to learn to be cheerful, you may want to take some time to discuss sadness with your student. Expressing sadness is not bad.

Crying and being upset or sad about something is okay. Some of the behaviors you may want to differentiate between include: sadness, grief, pouting, whining, etc.

4. Ways to Deal with Disappointment

Discuss disappointment. What are healthy ways to respond to disappointment?

5. Word Search

6. Bible Verse Cards

Print the cards and store in the pocket. If desired, use the cards for copywork.

| Janelle lost her money to buy candy. She whimpered about it the entire trip to the store, while in the store, and the entire car ride home. | Frances discovered her book had been ripped up by her baby sister. She screamed at her sister and whined to her mom about what happened. |
| Sasha's mom put gravy on her mashed potatoes, and Sasha doesn't like gravy. Sasha complained about it to her grandma later that night. | After a long winter, Jake went to the garage to find his bike. When he saw the tires were flat, he decided to clean the garage while he waited for his dad to come home. |
| John and Jill were excited to see the flowers dad brought home for mom on her birthday. They didn't ask him why he didn't buy a cake. | At the church picnic, Jessica's friend, Marcy, spilled some juice on Jessica's new dress. Jessica refused to talk to Marcy. Jessica wasted the entire day sulking instead of playing. |
| Casey had been planning to bake some brownies, but mom forgot to buy cocoa. When Casey discovered this, she altered her plan and decided to make vanilla pudding for dessert instead. She was glad to help out. | When Derek's mom asked him to clean his room, Derek started right away. He sung a tune while he worked. |

Cut the book out in one piece (along the solid outer lines). Cut the sentence strips out along the solid outer lines. Fold the short edge of the book up along the dotted line so that the text is to the outside. Attach the pocket to the main portion of the book (on the right and left sides). Fold the "right" portion of the book over along the dotted line so that the pocket is on the inside. Do the same with the "wrong" portion of the book. The center pocket allows your student a storage spot so he can play this "game" again.

Cut book out. Fold on lines (matchbook style).

Proverbs 15:13

A happy heart makes the face cheerful,
but heartache
crushes the spirit.

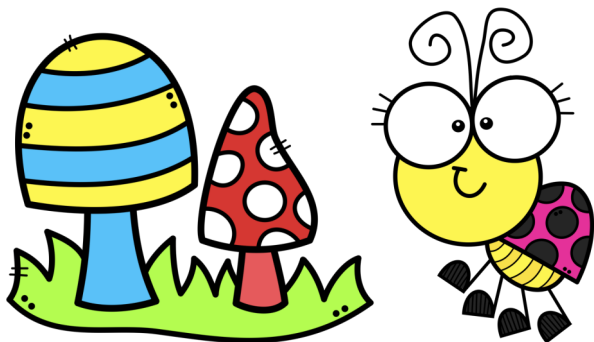

Psalms 5:11

But let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy.
Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name
may rejoice in you.

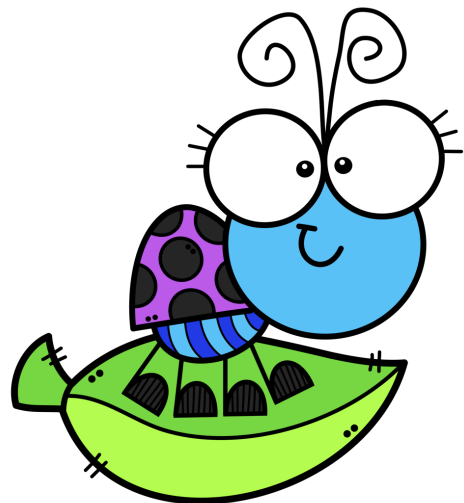

Proverbs 15:15

All the days of the oppressed are wretched, but the cheerful heart has a continual feast.

Psalms 35:9

Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation.
