What is Bree's full name?

What baby in the Bible was also found drifting on the water and was raised by adoptive parents?

The apostle Paul said that there is no room for prejudice among believers. Do you know why?

At first, Shasta and Aravis had hostility and suspicion between the two of them.

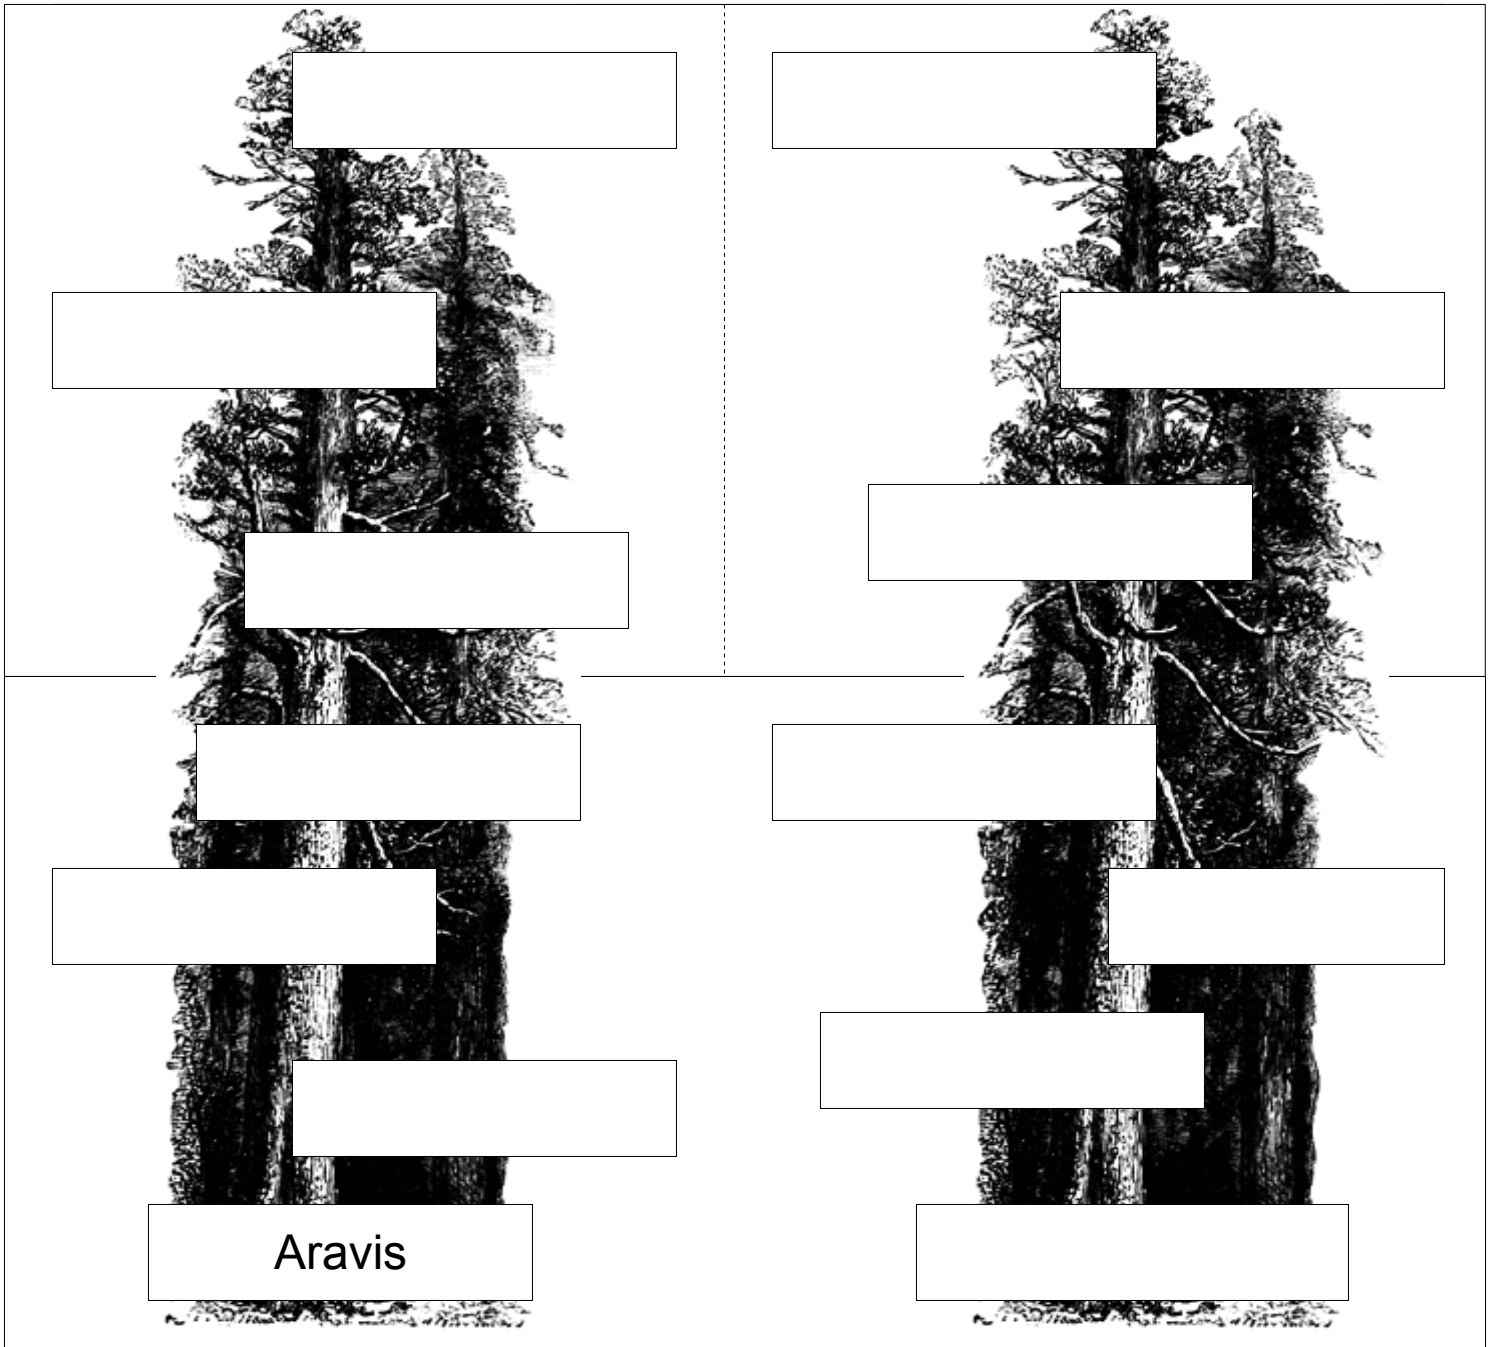

Galatians 3:26-28

Shutterfold to meet in the middle.

Who do you think might have been out there in the dark, helping the two children to meet each other?

Aravis

Aravis's Family Tree

My Family Tree

How do you think the disguises will get
the four safely
through Tashbaan?

Family Tree Directions: Cut around the outside lines of both items. Fold the tree book in half so that the trees are on the inside of the book. Cut on the dotted line to create flaps. Cut the title pages into two separate pieces. Paste the title pages on the correct outer flaps. If you don't feel comfortable about doing a paternal family tree, just cut the book completely in half so that you only have Aravis's family tree. Fill in Aravis's paternal family tree (note that the trees start on the bottom). How many grandfathers on your dad's side can you fill in for your tree? Your name goes in the bottom box, your dad's name in the next higher box, and so on.

Why didn't Aravis want to get married to Ahoshta Tarkaan?

Aravis' family tree is important and she can trace it back to the beginning. There are two Gospels in the New Testament that trace Jesus Christ's family tree. Which two books are they and how far back to the beginning do they go?

What is Shasta's first reaction when he enters the city?

Different Actions

Different Actions: Cut around entire booklet. Fold in half. Cut on the dotted lines and completely cut out the top rectangle. You should now have three questions flaps with an empty space at the top. Cut out the title piece. Glue to the open space at the top.

Why is Prince Rabadash
not a person that
Queen Susan should marry?

*How are Ahashta and Prince Rabadash
alike?*

Directions: Cut apart all six squares. Stack and staple at the top. List one way they are alike on each page. You do not need to use all the squares. Just leave the blank ones off, or draw pictures to illustrate your examples.

Why was Shasta anxious to get to the

Shopping List for Life directions: Cut apart the shopping bags. Place title page on top, the page about Lasaraleen's list, one blank bag, the page about your list and at least one blank bag for a total of 5+ pages. Record your lists on the blank pages, adding pages if needed. Staple together at the handles to open folding up (or use a brad).

Lasaraleen insists on the finest of clothing. She speaks often about which beautiful outfit she wore for this or that occasion.

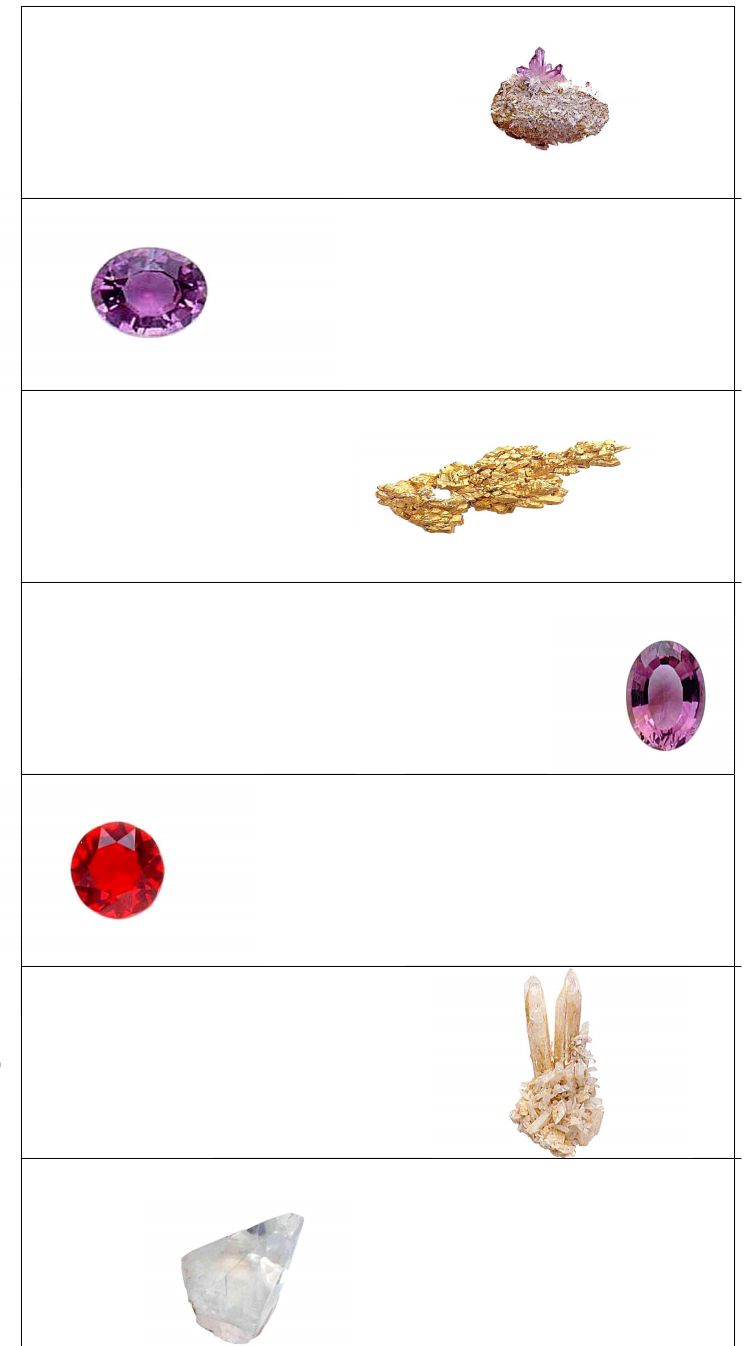

In the Bible, what are the qualities of an attractive woman?

Proverbs 31:10-31

Tri-fold so that the picture is on the front.

Fold flaps under and glue to notebook to create a pocket. Cut out the treasure cards on the right. Write on each one a treasure (or about a treasure) that will last forever. Place them inside the treasure map pocket.

This will work best printed on cardstock or glued onto index cards and cut out.

Cut around the outlines of all 3 cards. Using an exacto-knife, carefully cut a slit along the left side of the white inner title rectangle. Insert the bottom card through the slit so that only the "Pull" tab shows on the left side. Carefully apply glue to the left and right sides of the title card and paste to the larger background card (on the second page) making sure that you can pull the card in & out to see the answer that you've written on it, and paste inside lapbook.

Paste the above flap to lapbook

Proverbs 6:16-19 lists six things that God hates, seven that are detestable to Him. List the seven things and mark with a frown the ones Rabadash is guilty of committing.

Cut out entire outline from this page and the previous page. Glue the piece from page 2 to the bottom of this piece to create one long rectangle. Accordion-fold, making sure the title is visible on top. Glue to lapbook. If you wish, prior to gluing, wrap with a string and tie to hold it together.

Paste the extra two accordian folds to this flap

Luck directions: Cut around the book above. Cut around the circular clip art on the right. If desired, mount it on a contrasting colored paper and trim.

Attach to the blank spot on the book by either: gluing it down where you want it, punching a hole in it and attaching it with a decorative brad, put an eyelet in it and attach a tassel, then glue down, or whatever other creative way you can think of.

Why do you

chasing the group?

In the Bible, who
or what controls
the circumstances of our lives? Read Psalm 75:6-7 and
Proverbs 16: 4 & 9

What was King Cune doing

when Shasta met him?

Which way directions: Cut out the base (the 4-way arrows piece above) following the outline. Cut out the title question square. Place the title square over the base square and attach with either a brad in the corner, or with two staples. Answer the question under the title. Color the arrows on the title question.

Shasta looks to see a stream of refreshing water spring forth from Aslan's footprint. In the Bible, someone spoke of himself as the source of springs of living water. Do you know who?

Finds Freedom

Still Enslaved

Who in this story finds freedom, and who doesn't?

Finding Freedom: Cut around all three pieces (one is the inside of the book and the other two are for the cover). Fold the largest piece (the inside piece) in half. Open up. Fold the outer sides in to meet in the middle. Glue the question on to the right flap, and the picture on the left flap. Open up and answer. Younger students can just record the name, while older students may wish to provide reasons as well.

*Just like Aslan someone in the Bible appeared and disappeared in a room full of friends
Do you remember who it was that did this?
Read John 20: 19-20.*
