The Iroquois are Five Nations

Cut out The Iroquois are Five Nations heading and glue it below the five flaps. Inside each flap write information about each tribe.

Cut out the rectangle as one piece. Fold on solid lines. You should have a book that opens like the "shutters" on a window.

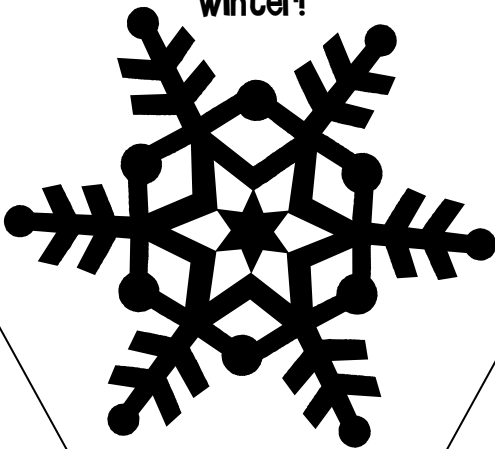

On the inside flaps, write the cities of Buffalo (left for west) and Albany (right for east). Then write about or draw the Iroquois trail running between them.

Cut out books out on solid lines; fold on dotted lines.
If additional pages are needed, attach the two page addition to the three page base using the tab.

BACK

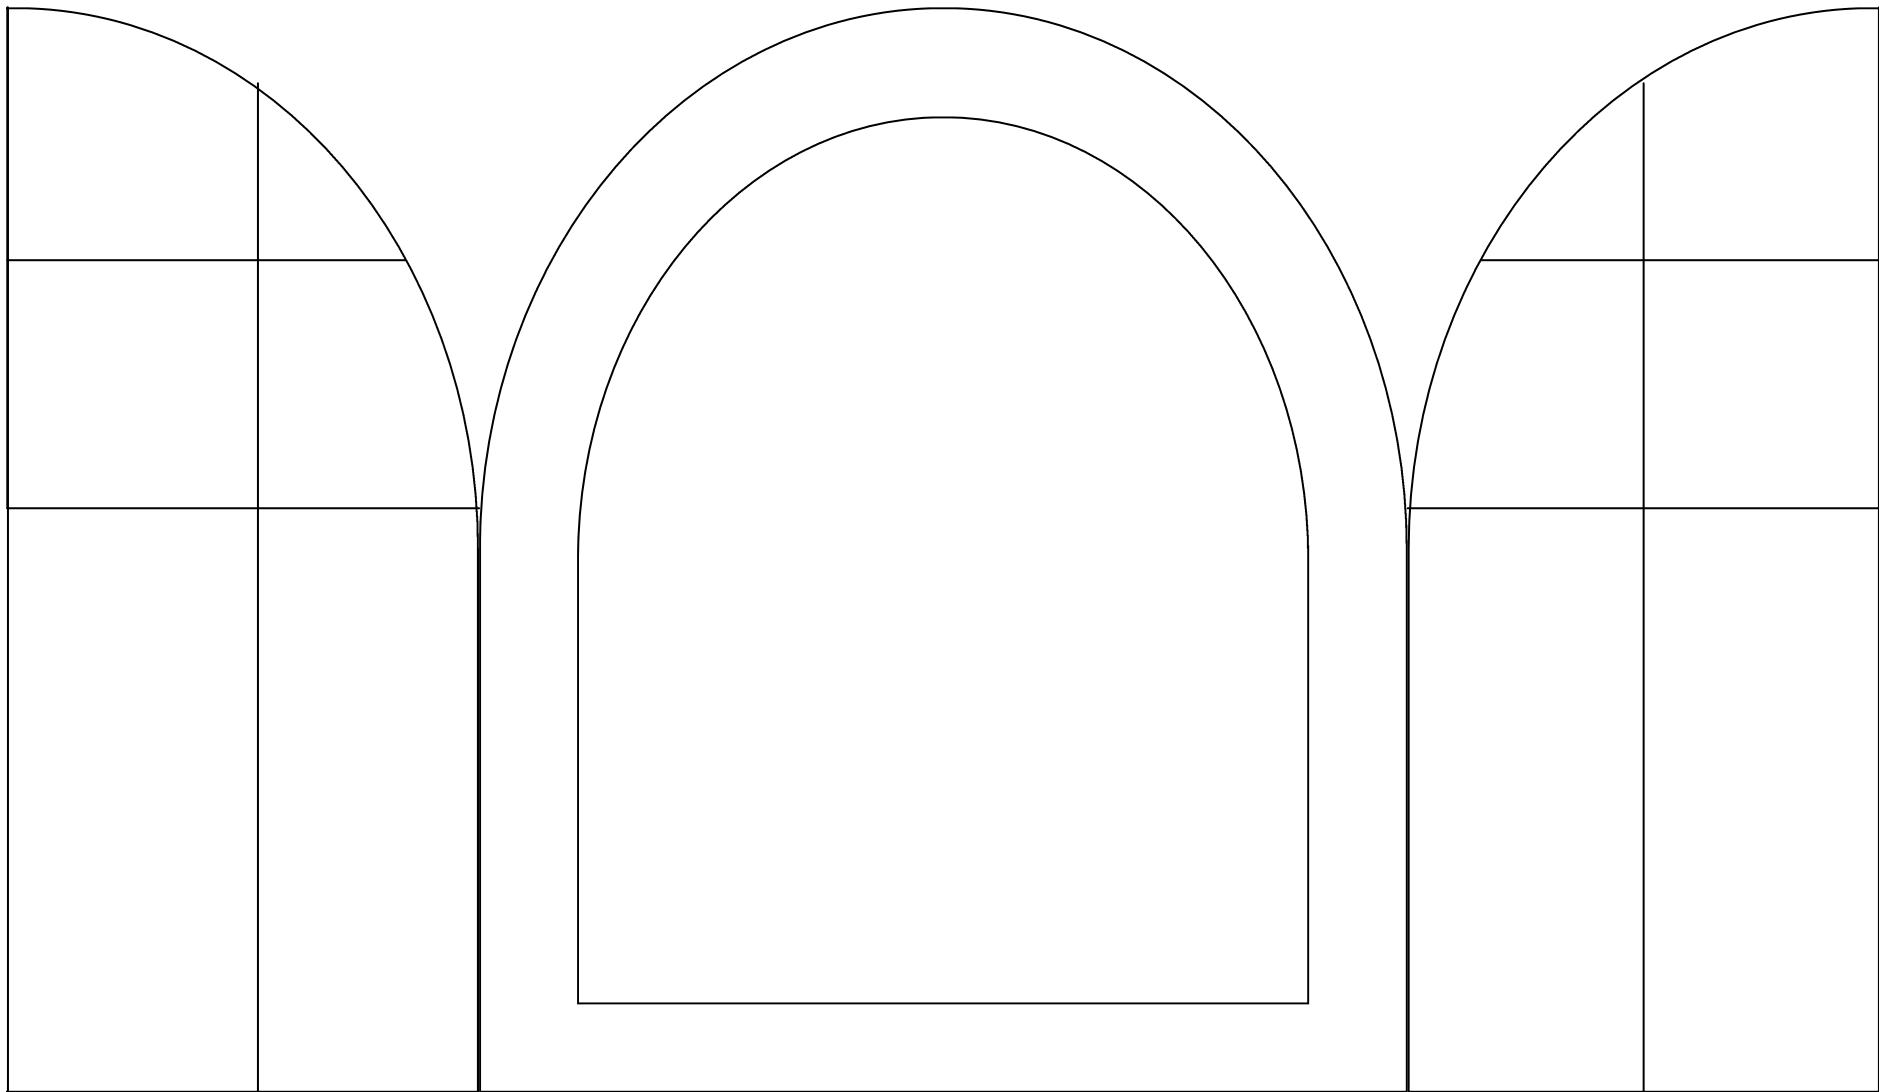

What is Wampum?

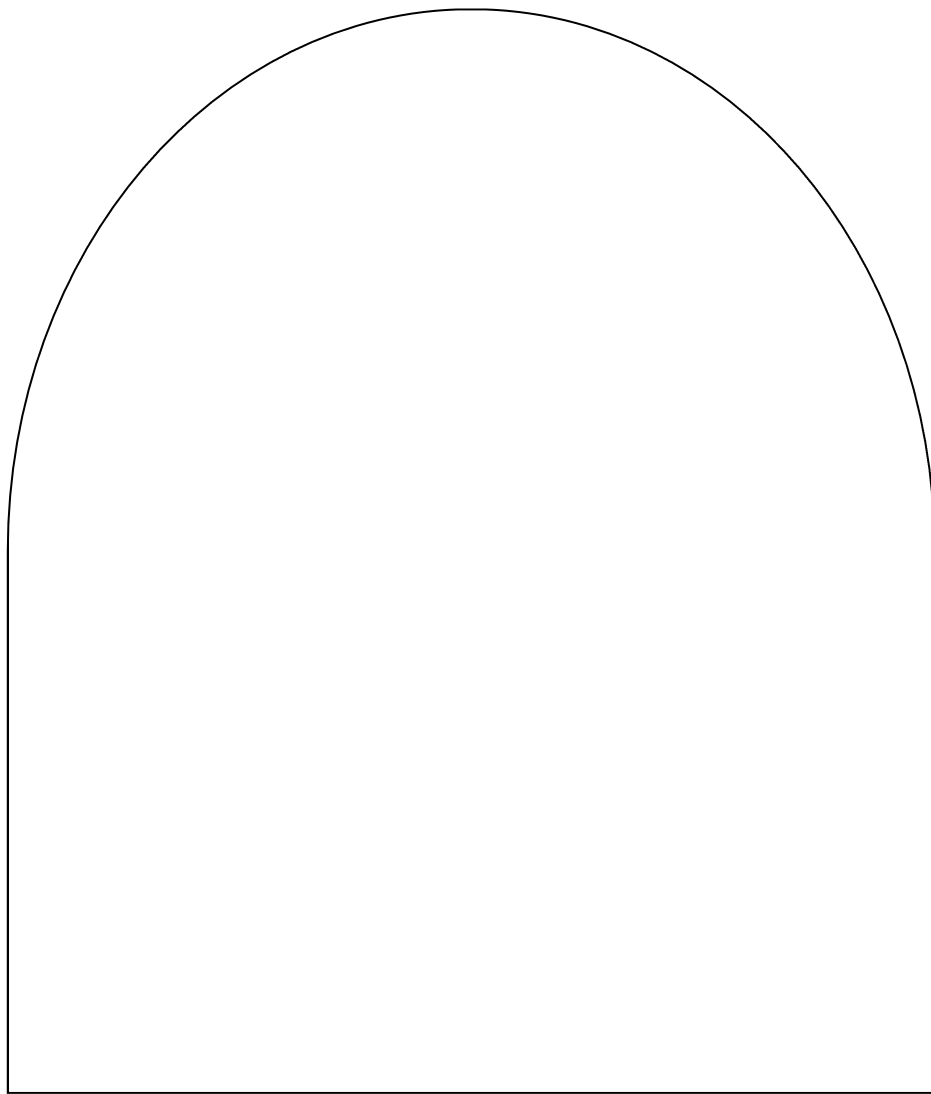

For best results print on cardstock. Color the side flaps brown to resemble a longhouse. Cut on the outside lines as one shape. Fold the bottom flap up and the sides in.

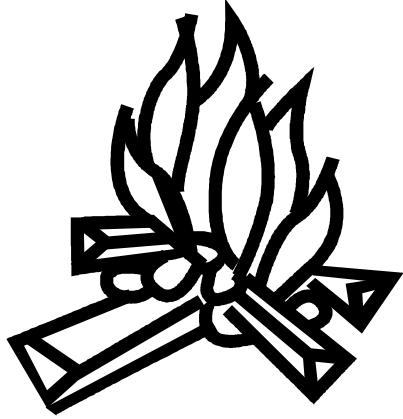

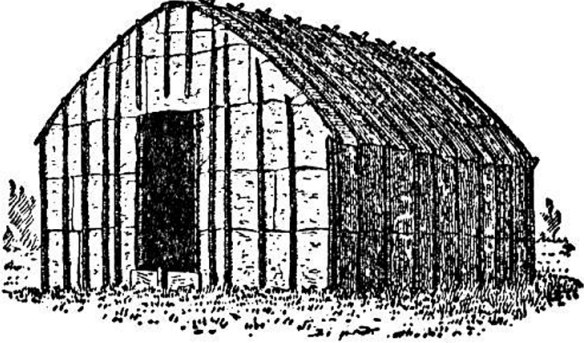

If you would like, you can cut out the door of the longhouse or even attach a small piece of brown cloth. Inside the book, write about the longhouse and/or draw what the inside of a longhouse looks like.

Using another sheet of paper, the same color and thickness as your book, cut two long strips, each 8 cm. wide. Fold these accordion style and affix to the back and front of the minibook.

Cut out book as one piece. Fold matchbook style. Open. Cut on dotted line to form two flaps

THE THREE SISTERS

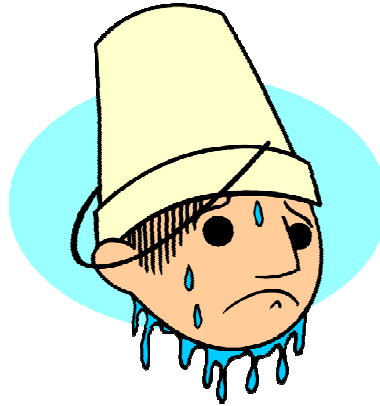

PRINT ON CARDSTOCK

Cut out pieces. Write uses for corn on the pieces. Stack together with cover on top and secure with a brad.

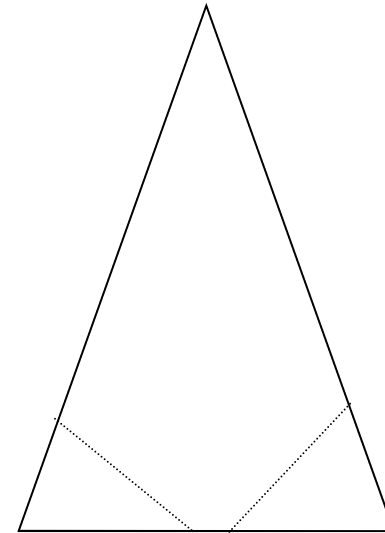

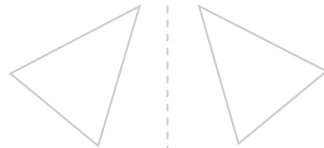

Rectangle 1

Glue next page here.

How Were Iroquois Children Punished?

Rectangle 2

Cut out the two rectangles and fold on dotted lines. Write facts about Longnose and other punishments inside rectangle # 1.

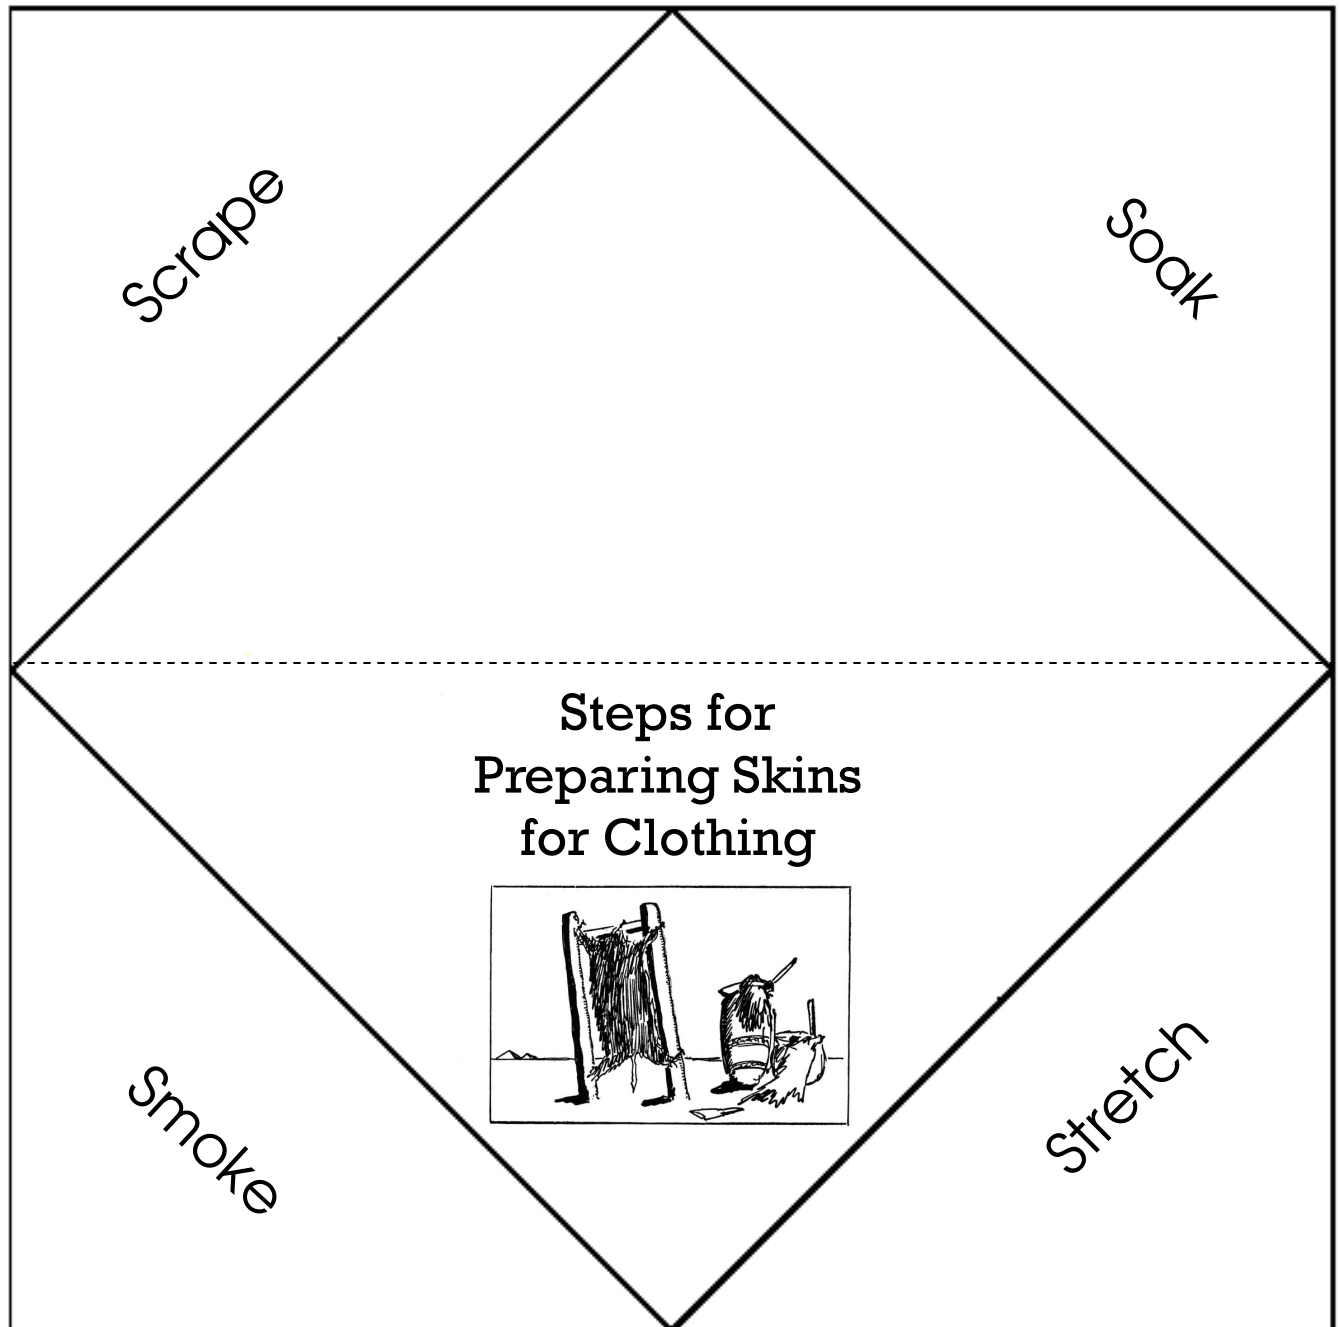

Prepare the Longnose pop-up:

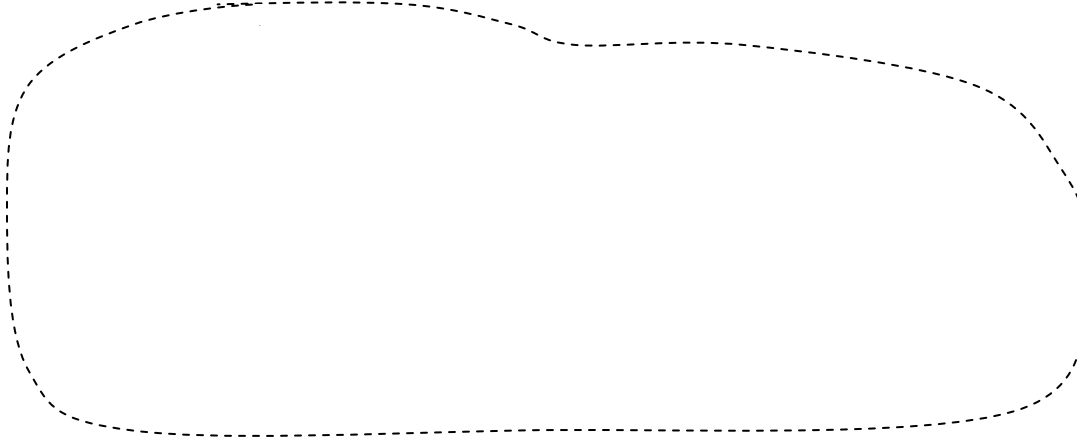

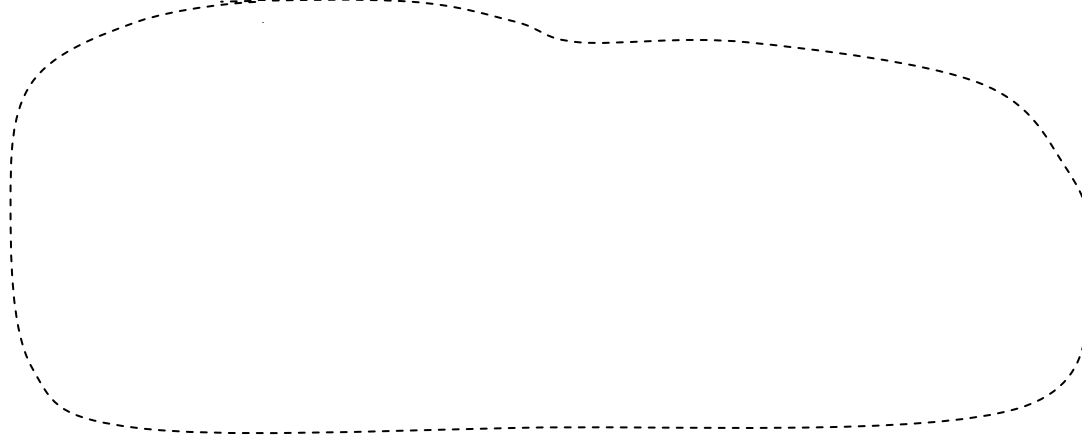

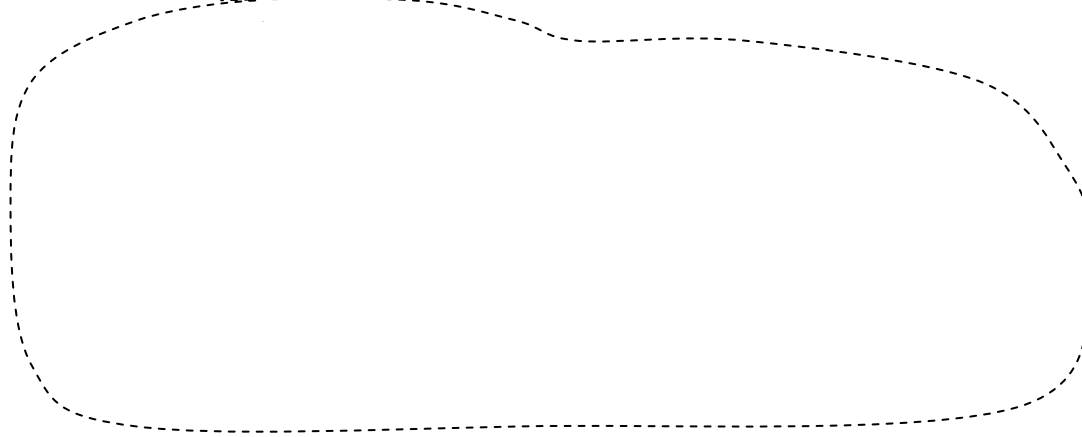

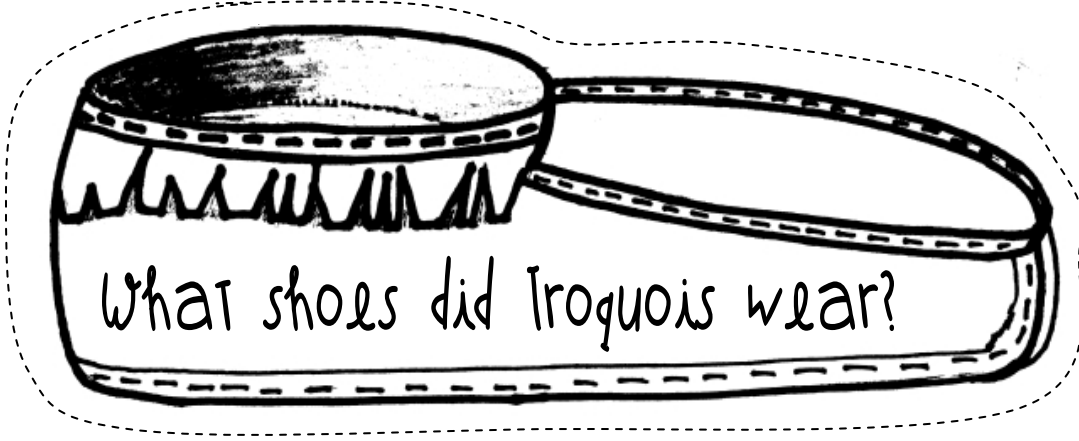

Decorate the inside of rectangle 2 to represent the Longnose mask. Color the triangle/nose if desired. Cut out the triangle and fold in half from tip to bottom center. Fold back tabs (valley fold) on dotted lines and glue tabs to the card where indicated to form the nose of your mask. (See photo for help in placement.)

Assemble the book:

Glue the two folded rectangles together where indicated to form a multi-page book.

Cut out book. Fold each triangle flap under. Fold book in half on dotted line. When you open the book, there should be four flaps to life and record information.

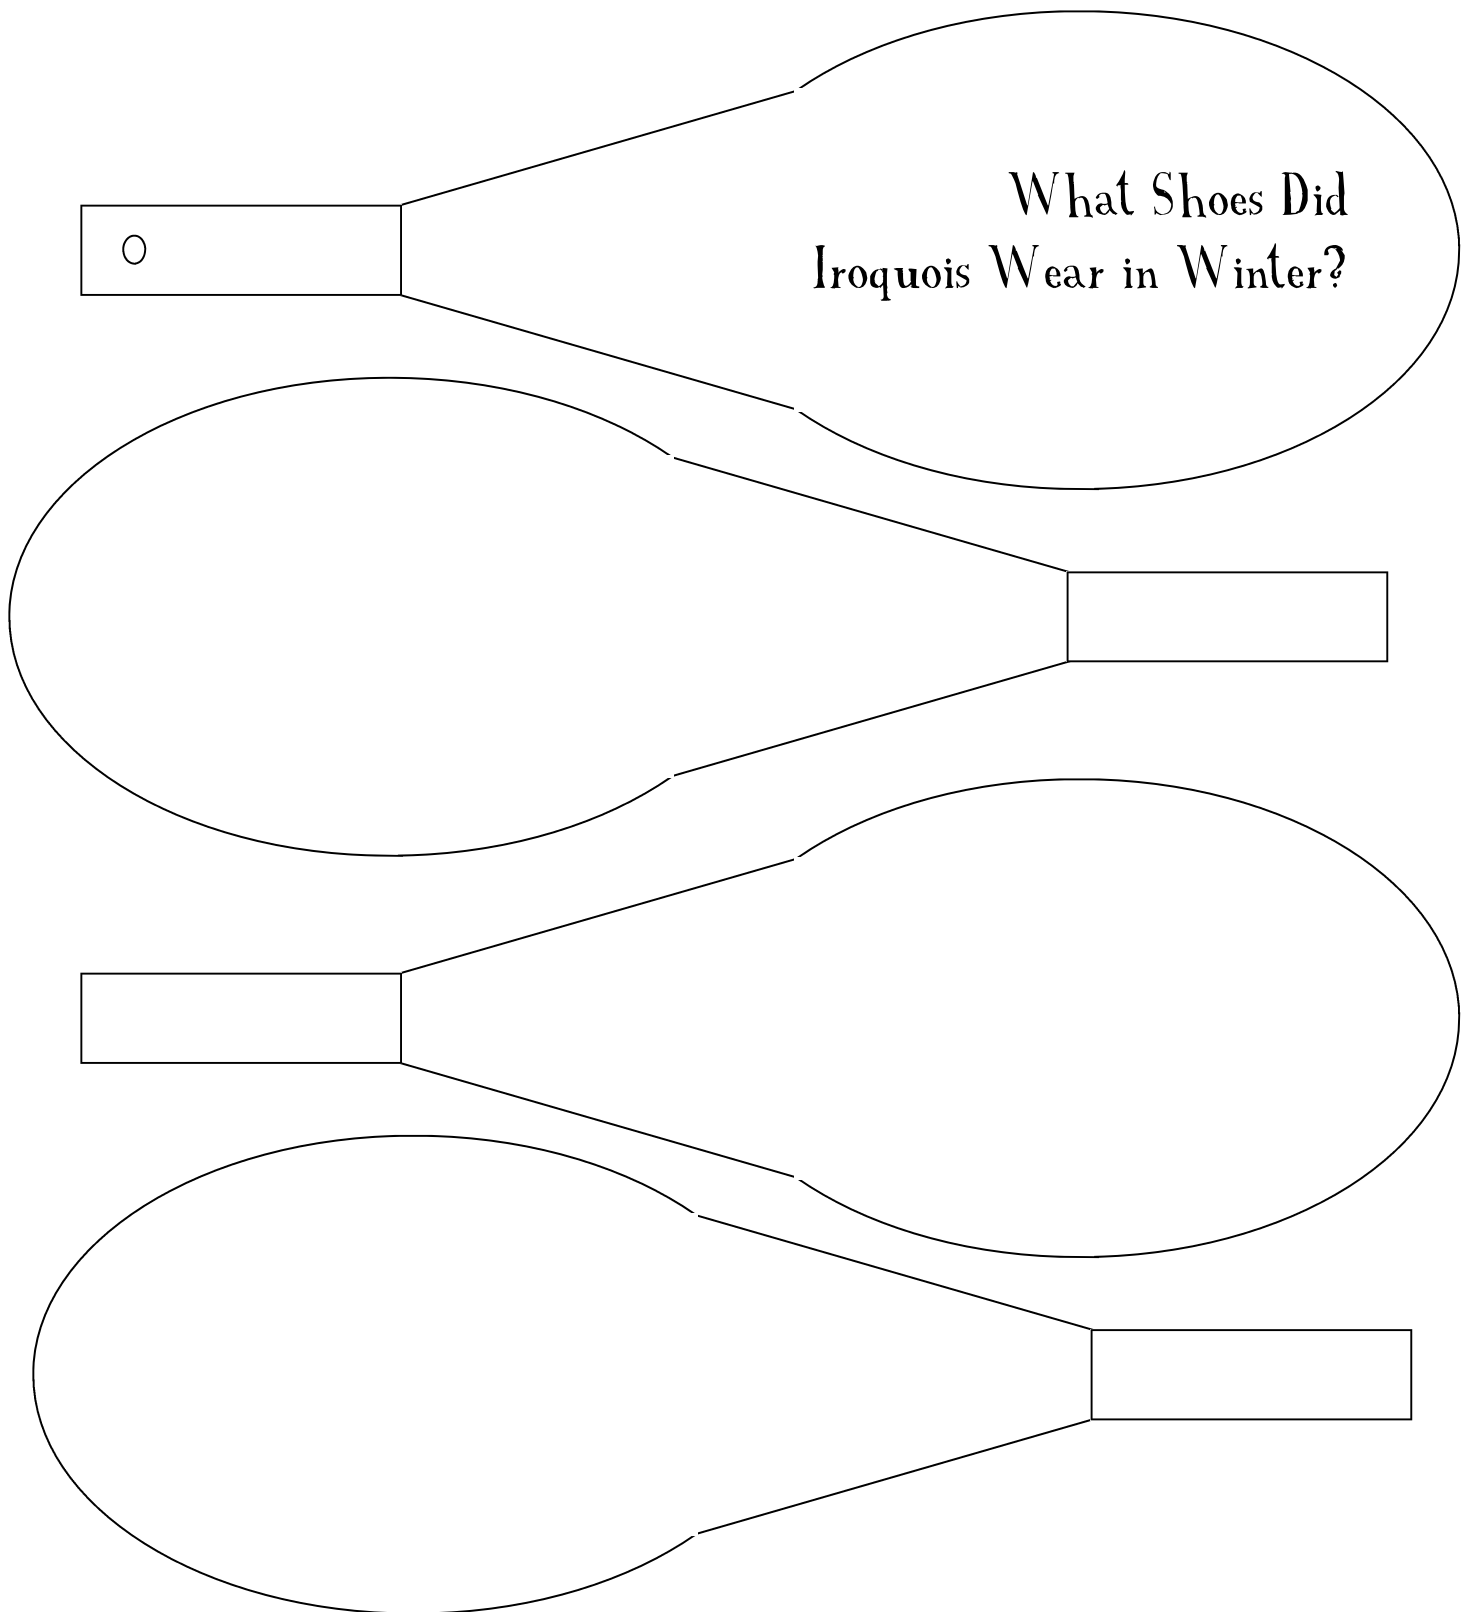

PRINT ON CARDSTOCK. Cut out the shapes. Stack together with cover on top and secure with a brad.

Print onto cardstock. Cut out the snowshoe shapes and hole punch on the end where indicated on the title page. Draw the deer leather netting on the cover.

Write facts about snowshoes on the inside pages. Join the pages together with a paper fastener. Affix the back page to the lapbook or store it in a pocket.

Cut out wheels. Cut away the extra area on the cover wheel where indicated. In the three spaces on the bottom wheel, write the three types of Iroquois healers: herbalists, surgeons, and medicine societies. (Or cut out the words provided and glue them on.) Decorate with drawings as desired. Attach wheels together using a brass fastener.

FRONT

PULL TAB

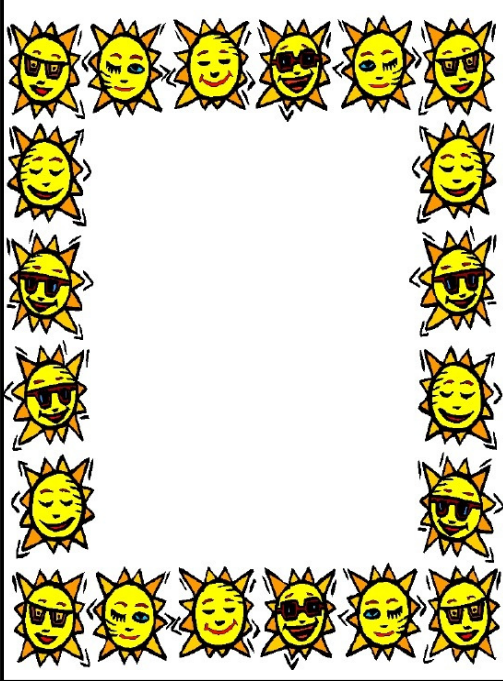

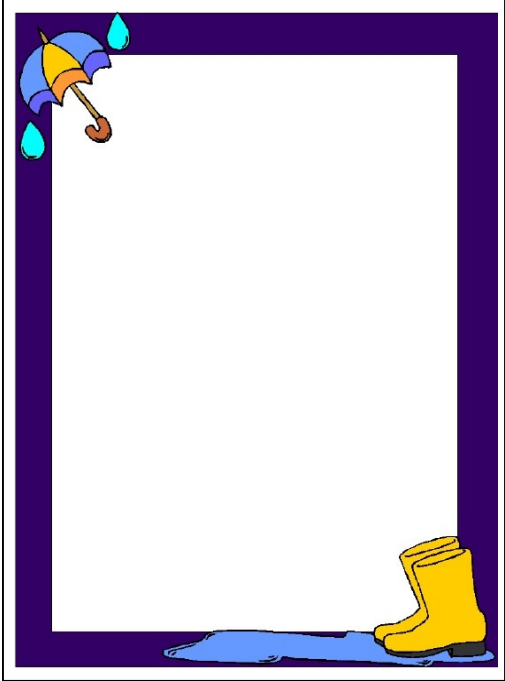

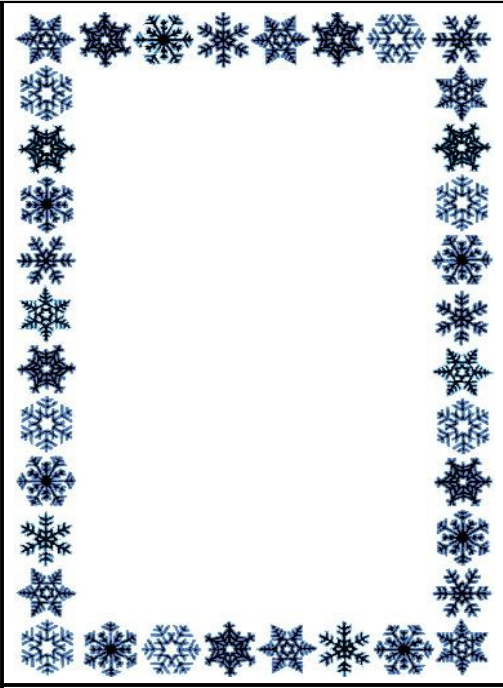

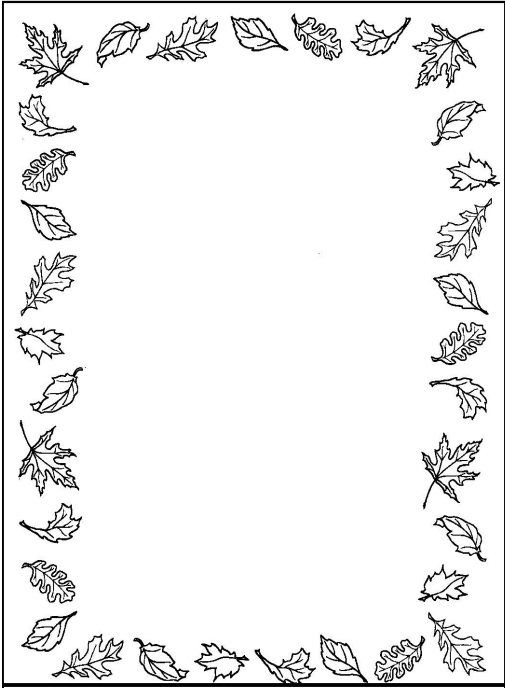

Print on cardstock. Cut out both pieces. Cut the slit on the dotted line of the FRONT piece. Insert the PULL TAB through the slit. When you glue down the book, make sure to glue only around the outermost edges and not in the center. You want the slider to remain free to move up and down.

Print all on cardstock. Cut out the pocket. Fold back flap up and wrap side flaps around the back and glue down. Glue the back of your pocket into your lapbook. Cut out the cards and write or draw what work the Iroquois did during each season. Store the cards in the pocket.

You are looking at the inside of the PETAL BOOKS. Cut each shape out as one piece. Fold flaps in using the dotted lines as your guide. If you fold them around the square sequentially, you'll be able to tuck the last flap under so that book will stay closed.

PETAL BOOKS

Make one petal book for each of the four Iroquois sports — write text or draw pictures inside each book for

1. snow-snake
2. Racing
3. Games of chance
4. lacrosse

FOLDER

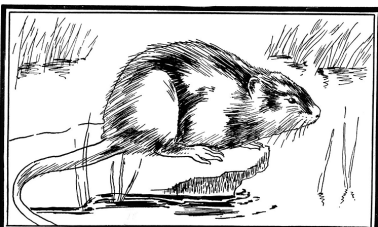

Print the FOLDER on cardstock. Fold on the dotted line and decorate the cover of the book. (Title — Sports and Games of the Iroquois) Affix the individual PETAL BOOKS onto the squares as marked according to the labels.

Cut out shapes on solid black lines. Fold on dotted lines like an accordion (back and forth, back and forth).

On the inside pages of the book, draw simple stick figures to retell the Iroquois creation story.

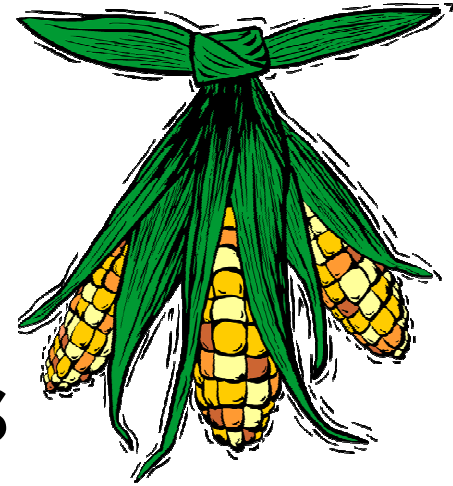

(The animal on the cover is a muskrat, the animal that brought back dirt to create the island of Earth in the legend.)

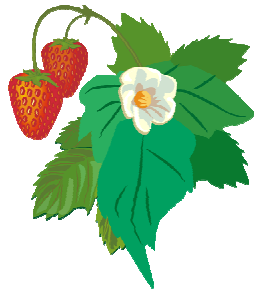

IROQUOIS CREATION STORY

Cut book out as one piece. Fold in half. Open. Fold bottom strip up (fold on the dotted lines) to form a pocket on the inside of the book. Use small dots of glue on the edges (if you use too much, the pockets will be too small). For cards, use standard 3x5" index cards or the templates on the following pages. Write facts about each holiday on the cards.

The Iroquois League

Print on cardstock.
Cut on solid lines.
Fold flaps over towards the pine tree.

On each flap, write
the name of a character from the story of the formation of the Iroquois League:

1. The Peacemaker
2. New Face
3. Hiawatha
4. Tadodaho

Inside the flaps, tell what role each person played in the creation of the league.

Draw the white roots below the pine tree. Add the discarded weapons as well, if you would like.

Print page. Cut on solid black lines; fold on dotted lines. On the bottom center title area, write Iroquois League Council. On the labeled flaps, write the names of the tribes. On the inside of the book, draw a fire and write facts about how council meetings were held.

This image shows a single page from a notebook or ledger. It features approximately 20 evenly spaced horizontal blue lines across its entire width. The lines are thin and consistent in color. There are no vertical margin lines, headers, footers, or any other markings present on the page. The background is a uniform off-white or light cream color.
